

netForensics OSP 3.4 User Course

Course description

The netForensics User Training Course is a comprehensive course for netForensics's flagship Enterprise Security Event Management system. This three-day course covers all aspects of netForensics usage and will provide a level of proficiency in netForensics environments and interfaces. Students will also be introduced to all aspects of netForensics usage. This is a comprehensive course allowing students to gain hands-on experience in a range of workshop exercises

Who should attend

This course is designed for those people that will be using the netForensics SIM Desktop on a day to day basis for investigating security incidents, including security analysts, security managers, auditors, and incident responders

Objectives

Delegates attending this course will be able to:

- Understand netForensics architecture and how to its various modules and components communicate
- Investigate Security Incidents using the netForensics SIM Desktop
- Author Rules, Filters, Dashboards
- Investigate incidents, produce Reports
- Schedule reports
- Administer users

Pre-requisites

Delegates should have a good understanding of IT Security and networking, they should be able to use basic Internet tools, i.e. web browsers.

They also need a basic knowledge of TCP/IP.

Topics Covered

- Introduction to SIM
- Architecture
- SIM Desktop
- Risk Management
- Real Time Monitoring
- Global Attacker Watch
- Risk Insight
- Reports
- Report Distribution
- Knowledge Base
- User Account Management
- Rules Based Correlation
- Historical Correlation
- Vulnerability Correlation
- Incident Resolution Management

Contact Information

iSimile Limited
Suite 22
Cherry Orchard North
Swindon
SN2 8UH
United Kingdom

Tel: 01793 714250
Fax: 01793 433090
Email: training@iSimile.com
<http://www.iSimile.com>